TOWNS OF COUNTY GAIN SINCE 1910

Detailed Report on Rush County's Population Shows All But Four Townships Lost

ALL INCREASES ARE SMALL

Ripley, Rushville, Washington and Walker Show Increases—County
Loss Relatively Small

The population of the townships and incorporated towns in Rush county was announced today by the census bureau, in a letter received here, which gave a comparison between the census of 1920 and those of 1910 and 1900.

The population of the county was announced in dispatches Tuesday, the county showing a loss of 108, or .06 percent in the last decade. The detailed report received today reveals a decrease of 907 in the last twenty years.

All three of the incorporated towns gained in population over 1910 but not over 1900. The population of Rushville city, as announced April 2, is 5,498, a gain of 573 over the census of 1910 and an increase of 957 over 1900 when the population was 4,541.

The town of Carthage gained 20 inhabitants in the last decade, the 1920 population being given as 902 and the 1910 population as 873. As compared with 1900, Carthage shows a loss of 126, the count twenty years ago showing 1,028 inhabitants.

Glenwood has 233 inhabitants living in Rush county or a total population of 324 in both Rush and Fayette counties. This represents a total gain of 38 since the last census, and a gain of 18 on the Rush county side of the line.

Every township in the county shows a loss in the last ten years with the exception of Ripley, Rushville, Washington and Walker. Gains in these four townships have been slight, however. Ripley increasing its population by twelve, Rushville (including the city) by 500, Washington by 37 and Walker by nine-teen.

This is really a net loss for Rushville township outside of the city because the city showed a gain of 573.

The Rushville city population by wards is given as follows: First ward, 1,341; second ward, 1,364; third ward, 2,493.

TWENTY YEAR OLD GIRL GIVEN CHANCE

Sentence and Fine of $500 Withheld
Pending Good Behavior in Case of Luvada Shanks

STATUTORY CHARGE FILED

Case Brought to Light When Mrs.
James Monroe of Cincinnati
Comes Here After Husband

Luvada Shanks, a twenty year old girl was arrested yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Joe Lakin, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stucker, living in North Spencer street, and was sentenced to a term in the state women's prison and fined $500 and costs on a statutory charge, the sentence and fine being withheld during her future good behavior.

The matter involving the girl was brought to light yesterday morning when Mrs. James Monroe and baby of Cincinnati journeyed to this city in quest of Mr. Monroe, whom the lady said was living with another woman in this city.

Mrs. Monroe stated that she didn't want her husband back, but did want the court to compel him to support her and their nine children, the youngest being a baby in her arms.

After an investigation among the local factories, it was found that he was living at the address in Spencer street but when the girl was brought into court, she said that they had quarreled on May 18, and she had not seen him since two o'clock in the morning on that date.

She said that Monroe wanted her to move to Virginia with him, but she refused, and he left without her. She also told the court about spending a few weeks recently in Kokomo, where they lived together as Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson.

She was given a stiff lecture, and told that she was expected to behave herself in the future, or else the $500 fine and costs would be placed against her, and a sentence imposed upon her in the State Prison for Women. Mrs. Shanks told the court that she was married when 14 years old, but had separated from her husband.

The case was tried before Squire Stech, having first been filed in circuit court, but on account of the absence of the judge, it was taken to the Squire's court.

Mrs. Monroe left Rushville last night, with not having been successful in the mission on which she came, and when the young girl came into court, she made threats against her, but was soon quieted.

UNION MEMORIAL SERVICES SUNDAY

Four Lodges Will Join in Annual Observance at East Hill Cemetery in The Afternoon

ARCH HOBBS WILL SPEAK.

Union memorial services, conducted by the Knights of Pythias, Red Men, Odd Fellows and Modern Woodmen, will be held at East Hill next Sunday afternoon. A program similar to the one followed for several years will be carried out. The speakers for the occasion will be Arch Hobbs, great keeper of records of Indiana for the Red Men. Mr. Hobbs has appeared here before and needs no introduction; he is an orator of ability and always has a message to deliver. It is anticipated that a large attendance will avail themselves of the opportunity to hear this speaker.

The members will assemble at Main and Second and march to the cemetery at 2:00 p. m. led by the Odd Fellows band. The graves will be marked in the morning by committees from the various lodges. The members will deposit flowers with this committee at the gate when they will be distributed to the graves. The committee in charge hopes that every member make a special effort to be present.

BOARD OF REVIEW WILL MEET MONDAY

County Board Will Pass on Assessment Lists and Make Changes
Where They Are Necessary

WILL EQUALIZE VALUATIONS

Individuals Not Satisfied With Appraisements May Make Complaints—Session 28 Days

The county board of review will convene in annual session next Monday and will meet daily for twenty-eight days, as provided by law, to pass on assessments list, equalize assessments and add omitted property of all classes.

The board is composed of two members appointed by Judge Will M. Sparks, the county assessor, Earl Priest; the county auditor, Will M. McMillin, and the county treasurer, Charles A. Frazee. The two members appointed by Judge Sparks are Arie M. Taylor, democrat, and George H. Havens, republican.

The session is limited to twenty-eight days in counties with less than twenty thousand population, during years that real estate is not assessed. The county assessor is president of the board and the auditor is secretary. The secretary is required to keep complete minutes of all transactions.

The board of review will receive from the auditor the assessment list of the county as returned by the township assessors. The county assessor will report all changes and corrections in the returns and assessments of the township assessors which he believes ought to be made. The board may on its own motion add to the assessment list the names of persons, the value of personal property and the description and value of real estate liable to assessment and omitted on the township lists.

The board has the authority to question any resident of the county under oath as to his assessment or that of others with the view of placing all appraisements on an equality. The board has the right to change the assessment in any township, city, or other sub-division of any taxing unit wherein it is shown that the property was listed on an equality with the same class of property in other units.

Individuals who feel that their assessments were not just may appear before the board in person and ask for relief. Each year a number of persons file requests for reductions of assessments and last year the number of complaints was exceptionally large because of the operation of the new tax law which is designed to list all property at one hundred percent value. The township assessors report that the taxpayers are generally satisfied with the appraisements this year, and it is not likely that such a large number of objections will be filed.

DELEGATION TO LEAVE ON SUNDAY

Several Republicans Will go to National Convention Which Will Open in Chicago Tuesday

TICKETS NOT SO PLENTIFUL

Local Republicans Assured They Will Get Inside Coliseum—
What Their Hopes Are

The Rush county delegation to the republican national convention, which will open in Chicago next Tuesday, is preparing to leave Sunday so as to be on hand for the opening. All are assured that they will get inside the coliseum although tickets to the convention are going to be at a premium.

The advance guard from Rushville will be composed of Will M. Frazee, Harvey Cowing, Guy Gordon, Will M. Bliss and Fon Riggs, county chairman. Others may attend later in the week so as to be present when the balloting begins on Friday.

Mr. Frazee has charge of the distribution of part of the convention tickets allotted to the sixth congressional district and will see that all Rush county republicans who attend the convention, get a chance to see inside the coliseum. Sixth district republicans never worry very much about a seat because Col. E. Thayer, formerly of Greenfield, has been holding the position of sergeant-at-arms of the national convention for many years and he always remembers his friends.

It is said, however, that tickets are not to be as easily obtained this year as in the past. One reason is the fact that women are taking an active part in the pre-convention plans and will be taken care of in the convention.

Local republicans are going to Chicago with the hope in their breast that the convention may turn to Senator James E. Watson of this city as the logical "dark horse" candidate. Indications continue to pile up that he is in a strategical position and that he is as likely to be the choice of the republican delegates as any other prominent republican who has been mentioned.

It is becoming increasingly evident that a man who has not been in the contest for the nomination will be the nominee. One by one the candidates who have made a fight in the state primaries are being eliminated.

Governor Frank Q. Lowden of Illinois apparently had the "inside" track up until this week when national convention delegates from Missouri dropped a bomb into his camp by describing the expenditure of money in that state. While it is not doubted according to non-partisan correspondents that the use of money in the Lowden campaign in Missouri was entirely proper, it gives an opportunity to some of the "relatively small importance" of the campaign.

CONGRESS WILL ADJOURN FINALLY

Senate Passes Joint Resolution, 44 to 24, Which the House Had Previously Passed.

NEXT SESSION IN DECEMBER

Wilson Sends Word he Would Not Object to Adjournment and Would Not Call Special Session.

(By United Press.)

Washington, June 3.—The house foreign affairs committee today voted to report favorably the joint resolution declining the authority for this country to accept a mandate over Armenia requested by President Wilson. The resolution was the same as that passed by the senate Tuesday.

Washington, June 3.—The United States government had dismissed all thought of trading with Soviet Russia in the future, it was learned today. There is no prospect that the embargo on shipments will be lifted, it was made known by officials today.

Washington, June 3.—Congress will adjourn finally next Saturday at 4 p. m.

The action necessary to assure the adjournment was taken today in the senate by the passage of the joint resolution previously passed by the house.

The senate vote was 44 to 24. It was passed after several provisions amending the resolution to have congress adjourn for a month or so defeated.

Shortly before the senate voted, Senator Underwood announced that President Wilson had telephoned him that he would not object to an adjournment and would not call congress into extra session unless conditions so forced him.

The next regular session of congress will open early in December.

Many congressmen will leave immediately for Chicago or San Francisco to attend the national conventions. Others will go to their districts to take part in the campaign for their own re-elections.

Before Saturday the senate expects to pass on the Armenian mandate resolution, merchant marine bill and the District of Columbia appropriation bill.

The senate also has to act on the merchant marine and the District of Columbia bill and pass the urgent deficiency appropriation bill which the house passed yesterday.

PETITIONS TO RAISE GAS RATES TO 75 CENTS

Peoples Natural Gas Co. Files Request With State Commission
Asking Increase.

FOUR REASONS ARE ASSIGNED

The Peoples Natural Gas company filed a petition yesterday with the Public Service Commission in Indianapolis, asking for an increase in their charges for gas, requesting that they be given the right to raise their present rate of 40 cents a thousand to 75 cents a thousand cubic feet.

The petition states that in September, 1918, they were granted an increase from 15 cents to 40 cents and were also granted a minimum monthly charge of one dollar. The present petition does not ask for an increase of the minimum charge.

The petition sets forth four reasons why the company asks for an increase, naming the increase in expense of operation, as one cause; the increase of maintenance, which includes the cost of materials and increased cost of drilling new wells, largely increased state and federal taxation; and because such disproportionate charge for natural gas under the schedule then in force is an extra burden of "outlay" in life effort to maintain an adequate supply.

WOOD CAMPAIGN COST $60,333.78

Itemized Statement of Expenditures in Indiana Primary is Filed in Indianapolis Today

PUBLICITY HEADS THE LIST

Name of Originator of Wood Million Dollar Campaign Fund Divulged
in Senate Inquiry

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., June 3.—Major General Leonard Wood's campaign in Indiana for the presidential nomination cost $60,333.78, according to an itemized statement of expenses filed with the county clerk today.

There was $11,401 in unpaid bills according to the itemized account. Publicity headed the list for high expenditures, the item totaling $14,147.89. The second item was advertising, totaling $8,130.50.

Salaries totaled about $3,250; rental of headquarters at the Claypool hotel, was listed at $3,251. Telephone and telegraph expenses were $3,800. Traveling expenses were approximately $2,892.

This statement covered more than 17 typewritten pages. It was signed by Major General Leonard Wood and said that the undersigned made no promises of any kind to aid or promote his candidacy for the presidential nomination.

Washington, June 3.—A new version of the origin of the so-called "million dollar campaign fund" of Leonard Wood was given the senate campaign expenditures committee today by Charles Duell, lawyer.

Ambrose Monell, who in previous testimony was named as a large contributor to Wood's fund, was author of the plan for a "million dollar campaign fund," according to Duell, who said he was associated in the campaign in the early days.

Robert Cassett, former president of the Pennsylvania Lines, Duell said, was asked to undertake to raise the fund at a conference in November, 1919, between Duell, Monell and Cassett. Cassett said he was too busy and declined, according to Duell.

Duell said General Wood himself also attended this conference where the raising of funds were discussed.

A. Sprague, national treasurer for Wood, has previously told the committee that Wood knew nothing of the fund.

The registration fee is $5. The money does not go to the Indianapolis Advertising Clubs but to the national organization. A. H. Amusements

"The Woman Gives" at Princess

The Princess offers for the program tonight and Friday, Norma Talmadge in "The Woman Gives," a picture that is full of dramatic intensity. Miss Leona Brown of Indianapolis, a talented vocalist will appear at the theater in the latest songs.

Harry Carey at Mystic

Harry Carey, the Universal Star, will be at the Mystic tomorrow in "Bullet Proof," one of his recent releases. Carey is one of the most popular of the screen stars which is due largely to the fact that he is human and knows human nature.

His ways are unaffected, his acting is real and his smile comes from the heart. Whether Carey plays the role of a hardened criminal or a persecuted hero, the audience is in sympathy with him at every turn.

Harry Carey's thousands of "fan" letters daily cover the entire human race. School teachers and convicts, grandmothers and tots who have just mastered the art of writing, druggists and shop girls—all have fallen victim to the spell of the Carey personality and the Carey grin.

Carey is a New Yorker, the son of a prominent jurist and himself educated to a legal career. But he became an actor instead, and later a playwright, starring in his own melodramas. He came to the screen when it was emerging from an experiment to an art, and he has grown with its evolution.

TAKES HOLD AND HELPS

Colds that "hang on" should be gotten rid of, for no one can stand the strain of racking cough, disturbed sleep, and irritation of throat and lungs. Marie Hessler, Freeport, Ill., writes: "I had more or less of a cough for years and I have taken quite a number of medicines. None of them takes hold and helps like Foley's Honey and Tar. This old remedy does just what I need, helps loosen the cold, croup and whooping cough. I believe no one should be without it."—(Advt.)

RHEUMATISM Leaves You Forever

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-Four Hours.

Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if two bottles of Allenru, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not stop all agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenru has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitious and where the patient was helpless.

Mr. James H. Allen, the discoverer of Allenru, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, despises all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenru decisively conquers this worst of all diseases and he has instructed your druggist to guarantee it in every instance.—(Advt.)

How Fast We Die

A Race of People Who Fight the Hand of Time

The population of the world is about 1,660,300,000.

The average age of death is about 33 years.

About 52,374,753 die annually.

Nearly 908,520 die weekly.

About 5,310 die hourly.

Almost 90 die every minute.

About three die every two seconds.

Sixty persons have died while you have been reading the above.

Death at 33 (before our prime) seems very short. From 20 to 35 is regarded as the sweet summer of life. Adventures, loves and romances are usually linked with those years, after which comes the problem of how to fight off early old age, premature senility and the distressing, dependent ill that usually come to us in the winter of our lives. In the famous Balkans, or that part of Europe known as the Near Orient, live a hardy, rugged people. Though brave and fearless, they are a pastoral people. Their fellowship with nature has given them priceless secrets in botany, plant life and agriculture. Two-thirds of the rarest and most precious perfumes (attar of roses) comes from Bulgaria. The Bulgarians gave the idea of fermented milk to the world, and it is generally known that in Bulgaria, in a population of 1,000,000 people, 1,600 live to be 100 years or over, while here in the United States it is regarded as a rare news item when any one reaches the century mark. Their one great family remedy upon which they rely and which for centuries has been handed down from one generation to another is the famous preparation called Bulgarian Blood Tea, composed of roots, barks, leaves, seeds, berries, herbs and flowers. A teaspoonful of these herbs brewed in a cupful of hot water and taken at bedtime eliminates the fatal toxic poisons which are responsible for early old age and most of the ills we suffer. Bulgarian Blood Tea is today used the world over and praised by millions of sufferers fighting disease and warding off old age weaknesses. They include happy girls budding into womanhood or women crossing precarious thresholds of life. All praise and recommend it. Men recover their strength and vitality, the blood becomes rich and pure and the snap and sparkle of good health returns to those who were in despair. Just ask your druggist today for a trial package of Bulgarian Blood Tea and you will never regret the time you spent in reading this item.

HONOR KING GEORGE'S 55TH BIRTHDAY TODAY

Conducts Most Important Function Known as "Trooping the Color" a Very Picturesque Ceremony

KING GIVES BANQUET TONIGHT

(By United Press.)

London, June 3.—King George celebrated his 55th birthday today, and in honor of the event artillery salutes were fired in St. James's Park, London, the Broad Walk, Windsor, and at all naval and military depots the garrisons were reviewed. The most important of these functions was the picturesque ceremony known as "Trooping the Color," which King George conducted in person in Hyde Park this morning.

With full dress uniforms the parade is one of the most imposing spectacles that can be seen anywhere, and even although today the troops participating were still attired in war-time khaki, it provided a fine show. Next year the Guards will be back in pre-war uniforms, but there was a fine splash of color today, for the massed bands had got back into scarlet and gold, and there were many full-dress uniforms among the staff.

Vast crowds gave King George a tremendous reception as he rode on to the parade ground at the head of a brilliant Headquarters' Staff. He was attended by Field Marshals Earl Haig, the Duke of Connaught, Lord Grenfell, Sir William Robertson, and Sir Henry Wilson, and most of the famous leaders in the late war. Queen Mary, with Princess Mary took up a position at the saluting base.

TENNESSEE IS TO BE COMMISSIONED

Super-Dreadnought One of Largest War Vessels in World, Will Have a Crew of 1,200 Men

ADM. McDONALD GIVES TALK

It is Said Vessel Will be Operated With Greater Efficiency Than Any Other Man-O-War

(By United Press.)

New York, June 3.—The super-dreadnought Tennessee, one of the largest war vessels in the world, was to be commissioned at the Brooklyn Navy Yard today. The ceremony will begin at 2:30 p. m., and will be featured by an address by Rear Admiral J. D. McDonald, commandant of the navy yard. Governor A. H. Roberts of Tennessee will be an honor guest for the ceremony.

In reply to Rear Admiral McDonald's speech, Captain R. H. Lee, who has been chosen to command the vessel, will deliver a second address.

The ship will have a crew of 1,200 men, of which number 600 are native Tennesseans, recruited for the vessel through the efforts of Governor Roberts and other residents of that state.

The Tennessee has twelve 14-inch guns, fourteen 5-inch guns and four anti-aircraft guns. The 14-inch guns will throw a total of 16,000 pounds of shells a distance of 20 miles and will be able to fire such a broadside every 30 seconds. The ship will be propelled by electricity, eight oil

If the CHALMERS Engine Had Windows You Would See These Revolutionary Processes

THE great thing about a motor car, after all, is how it transforms the energy that nature stored away in gasoline into horsepower.

Chalmers today leads in this, and the automobile industry to a large extent has accepted the Chalmers principles by which power is wrung from "gas."

If the Chalmers engine had windows you would witness these two amazing processes.

You would see the Hot Spot heat up and, like a hot stove sending up into steam water dropped on it, transform the raw, inferior "gas" of the day into a "vapor cloud."

You would see the instantaneous change from a "rainy liquid gas" to a so-called "dry gas."

Then you would look through Ram's horn and note this "vapor cloud" being rushed at a velocity of one hundred miles an hour through easy air bends an equal but short distance to each cylinder.

You would see the explosions in the cylinders, how much of this "cloud" was converted into power, how little was wasted through the exhaust.

You would note, too, how even and smooth these explosions were, and how absent the element of vibration that raises so much havoc in a car.

You would understand clearly how such troubles as frequently fouled spark plugs, burned bearings, and scored cylinders are absent in a Chalmers.

Your conclusion would be identical with so many others: that Chalmers is one of the few great cars of the world.

burning boilers supplying the steam to operate two electric generators, which will supply the current for four motors, one on the end of each propeller shaft. The propellers are 3 feet 6 inches in diameter, and will make 176 revolutions a minute, driving the ship at a speed of 21 knots an hour. With the exception of the boilers, practically everything connected with the propelling of the Tennessee will be controlled from the main control room.

It is said the Tennessee will be operated with greater efficiency and economy than any other man-o'-war in the world. The armor belt extends seven feet below the water line, and varies in thickness from a few inches to 18 inches.

There will be many comforts for officers and men on the ship, including a library containing 3,000 volumes. Commander A. Staton, who organized the crew, has established a merit system and arranged for the administration of various departments on a business basis.

The ship has fourteen decks. It will be equipped with the most serviceable material available. When completed, it will have cost $20,000,000. In over-all dimensions it is 624 feet long, 97 feet wide and draws 32 feet of water.

Jake Stewart Falls When Stepladder Collapses Today

Jake Stewart, the new custodian of the court house, sustained severe injuries in a fall from a stepladder while washing windows on the inside on the second floor of the court house. Mr. Stewart was taken home in an automobile and it was expected that he would not be able to return to work for several days.

The stepladder collapsed suddenly throwing Mr. Stewart to the floor. He fell with all of his weight on his left leg, which had been broken and thrown out of place before. The new custodian went to work last Monday, succeeding Samuel Buckner, who resigned.

LIGHT OVERCOATS TO BE SEASONABLE

San Francisco Invites Democrats to Their City For Convention And Gives Weather Hints

SUN WILL SHINE BUT NOT HOT.

June 28 Will be Pleasant But Fog Will Cause Atmosphere to be Cool Enough For Coats

San Francisco, June 3.—The Democratic National Convention to be held here beginning June 28 will be the first "light overcoat" national convention in history.

Convention crowds, instead of wearing "ice cream suits" and light summer dresses made necessary by the heat of the conventional convention city on all other occasions, will wear overcoats and furs if they wish to be comfortable.

The warning was sent out to convention visitors today to bring the light overcoat and the fur along. This is not because bad weather is expected but because such garments are in order in San Francisco on any normal day throughout the year.

San Francisco's rainy season will be definitely over some weeks before the convention starts and sunny weather, with just fog enough to be interesting, can practically be promised. The fact that there will be plenty of sunshine, but no torrid heat is expected to make this convention stand out as unique.

San Francisco's weather and natural setting on the ocean, within close touch of many beauty spots, are going to be utilized by the entertainment committee in order that delegates and visitors may look back upon their trip here with pleasure.

Ocean and bay trips are being arranged. Parties will be taken to entertain committee in order that Mount Tamalpais and Muir woods, the forest of gigantic Redwood trees across the bay. Ships of the Pacific fleet in the harbor will be open to visitors.

The local committee has been assured that the round-trip rate of the one-way fare, plus one-third, will be obtained for all those from the east.

The Democratic national committee, because of the long haul across the Rockies asked San Francisco to give $125,000, instead of the regulation $100,000 asked of convention cities in years past. It was estimated that it would cost the party $25,000 additional in preparation work. This is the first national party convention ever held this side of the Rockies.

VOTES NEGROES ARE NOT TO BE BARRED

G. O. P. National Committee Serves Notice on Southern Representatives Regarding Meetings.

ISSUE RAISED IN OKLAHOMA

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Ill., June 3.—The republican national committee voted today to serve notice on southern representatives that they must not hold the district or state conferences in buildings where negroes are barred.

The vote followed the contest in the second Oklahoma congressional district where a decision was made that the white delegates were legally entitled to the seats.

Evidence obtained during the hearing on the Oklahoma contest tended to show that the negroes were barred from the district convention held in the biggest hotel in Muskogee, Oklahoma.

"But," a Michigan committeeman said, "a majority of the contests this year as in former years have arisen from the fact that district and state conventions in the south were held in places where the negroes are not permitted."

Congressman Hunt of Kentucky, spoke in favor of the motion. A few years ago a similar condition existed in this state, but he stated that they had overcome the situation.

When the motion was put to a vote, it carried with but three or four dissenting.

TO INCREASE SALARIES

Washington, June 3.—The house today unanimously passed the postal service bill granting an increase in salaries to employees of the post office department. The bill called for an appropriation of $33,000,000 for the fiscal year 1921.
